NOVEMBER 17, 2024 + 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Notes on Our Liturgical Year

by Fr. Leo

As we rapidly approach the end of the church year, I thought it would be good to point out some things about the liturgical calendar. Today, Sunday the 17th, is the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Next Sunday is the Feast of Christ the King, always the last Sunday in Ordinary Time. The next Sunday is new Years Day, liturgically. It happens to fall on December 1st this year.

The Liturgical Year is marked by the special seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, the Triduum (or Three Days), Easter, and Ordinary Time. The Liturgical Year begins on the first Sunday of Advent (four Sundays before Christmas), which usually occurs around the beginning of December or the end of November, and ends on the feast of Christ the King (Usually the weekend before or after Thanksgiving). As we begin these last two weeks of 2024, I would ask everyone to take inventory of the year and ask how next year can be better. We have a lot of events scheduled over the next month to help get the new year off to a great start.

Please preview the parish calendar and make use of what is available. God Bless.
