DECEMBER 8 2024 + SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT

During the second Sunday of Advent, traditionally known as Peace Sunday, the Church looks at what God has done for us to allow us to have peace in our hearts. In a fallen world where sin and chaos seem to rule the day, we as Christians are reminded that God is still in control and that the only thing we have to fear is our own rejection of God's love for us.

In our Advent of Rescue book, the focus for this week is on The Fall, what went wrong after God created everything and said it was "very good". How did things go so terribly awry? Did God make a mistake in Creation that caused it to be broken? The simple answer to the first is pride, and to the second is NO, God does not make mistakes. God created us for love, we choose to fall short, he has sent us a remedy. All things work for good for those who love God, and the greater good will come, even from the evil that infests our world. In eternity all things will be right and good and beautiful. Much to ponder in a short week, God Speed.

God bless, Happy Advent.
