MARCH 30, 2025 + 4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Our 1st reading this weekend highlights the Israelites' first Passover in the Promised Land, marking a new beginning and showing God's faithfulness. His promise of deliverance to a land flowing with milk and honey is realized in a moment of gratitude and renewed hope. We then are encouraged to reflect on our own journeys, God's promises and His presence in our lives. Just as the Israelites celebrated their new beginning, we too can find joy in God's promises and look forward with faith and hope.

The parable of the Prodigal Son is a story with twists, turns and reversals. It focuses on freedom and duty, showing how God's mercy can change lives. The younger son seeks worldly freedom; he would prefer his father were dead so as to claim his wealth. Even when he returns home, he is more interested in physical comfort than in a relationship with his father. The older son is dutiful and takes pride in being "the good son." Driven by his ego and desire to be held in high esteem, he becomes furious when his reckless brother is restored to the family. The younger son is selfish, while the older son is prideful. Neither seems motivated by love, showing no understanding of how to truly be in relationship with their father. The father, however, is generous and forgiving with his younger son, welcoming him back wholeheartedly while reassuring his eldest of his love and shared inheritance.

This week we receive profound lessons about God's unwavering love and mercy and the many ways God calls us to renewal and reconciliation. Let us embrace these messages, seek forgiveness, and celebrate the new beginnings God offers us.

God Bless,
Fr Leo
