APRIL 13, 2025 + PALM SUNDAY

The final Sunday before Easter, Palm Sunday represents an important day in most all Christian worship traditions spanning Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox traditions. In the Catholic Church, Palm Sunday represents the sixth Sunday of Lent and marks the beginning of Holy Week.

It's a unique, beautiful liturgy that sets the stage for Easter Triduum and traces its inspiration back to the Gospels. In the US this Sunday is presented as "Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion" because it's the day we first hear the Passion reading. We will hear it again on Good Friday but from a different Gospel.

In 2025, Palm Sunday will feature the Gospel of Mark, while Good Friday will allow us to hear the Gospel according to John.

The Gospel we hear at the start of Mass, which describes Jesus's approach to Jerusalem, also rotates with the liturgical cycles—this year we are in Year C. Jesus enters Jerusalem through the Lion's Gate (Eastern Gate) as the Passover flock enters through the Sheep Gate (Southern Gate). Jesus is "inspected and approved" by the people, as the flock is inspected and approved by the priests. The sacrificial lambs have been chosen and the story begins.

God Bless,
Fr Leo
