APRIL 27, 2025 + DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Divine Mercy Sunday is given to us the Sunday after Easter to remind us what Easter is all about, "The Mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ." The first reading for this Sunday shows key themes in the Acts of the Apostles. It highlights the power of the risen Jesus working through the apostles healing the sick, showing the growth of the early Church and God's mercy reaching many. The apostles acted with courage and faith, trusting the Holy Spirit to guide them. Their mission to spread the Good News brought healing and hope to those in need. This reading reminds us that the Church continues Jesus' work of mercy, offering healing and salvation to all who believe.

The Gospel tells of Jesus bringing peace and joy to His disciples, proving His victory over death. The theme of faith is central, as Thomas moves from doubt to belief, Jesus blesses those who believe without seeing, encouraging future believers. This passage also highlights Jesus' mission, as He sends the disciples to continue His work and gives them the Holy Spirit. In this Year of Hope, this feast draws us to Jesus as the Christ, the merciful judge and the source of eternal life.

God Bless,
Fr Leo

NEIGHBORS NEAR & NEIGHBORS FAR:

Catholic Home Missions

Surprisingly, the Catholic Church is poorly established in many parts of our country.

The bishops' Subcommittee on Catholic Home Missions is a grant-making agency. It offers financial support to missionary activities that strengthen the Catholic Church in the U.S., and in its territories and former territories.

"Home Missions" is the name for dioceses and parishes in these places which cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without outside help.

The Salina Diocese is a Mission Diocese directly supported by this appeal!

To Give: Anytime during the month of April, place an envelope in your Parish Collection labeled "Catholic Home Missions"

TOGETHER, LET US BE DISCIPLES OF JESUS ON MISSION!

Jr. CYO Camp 2025 - will be held at Rock Springs Ranch from August 30 to September 1. This camp is open to students entering grades 6-8 in the 2025-2026 school year. The cost is $225 per student. Registration opens on April 25 and closes on August 15, 2025—but camp fills up quickly, so be sure to register early! Registration information can be found on the Seven Dolores website under "Headlines."
