MAY 25, 2025 + SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Ask and you shall receive, that your joy may be full". Our Savior has given the solemn promise, in His own name and in the name of His Father, that "whatsoever you shall ask the Father in My name, that will I do" (John 14:13). In prayer we have an unfailing means for obtaining light, power, and grace from God. "For everyone that asks, receives; and he that seeks, finds; and to him that knocks, it shall be opened" (Luke 11:10). He who fails to ask, will not receive; he who asks little, shall receive but little; while he who asks much, will receive much. Why? Because we become conscious of our own nothingness and misery; in all humility we acknowledge our nothingness and our insufficiency; we humbly confess that we are unable to help ourselves, that we cannot live by ourselves, and that of ourselves we can accomplish nothing. If we lift our hearts to God, for "every best gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights" (Jas. 1:17), we throw open the doors of our being to the infinity of God, that His light and power may stream in.

Prayer is the respiration of the soul; the soul exhales its own nothingness and inhales God. Prayer is the abandonment of self and a dedication to God. If we would preserve and nourish the life of God which we received in baptism, then we must breathe forth ourselves into God and inhale the light and the power of God. We do this in prayer. There is no grace without prayer. Only those who ask shall receive. Ask and Believe, Pray and Receive.

Ask and you shall receive

God Bless,
Fr Leo
