JULY 13, 2025 + 15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Meet Deacon Tim Donohoue – Ordained to Serve

I've been a parishioner at Seven Dolors since 1994, along with my wife, Cindy. On June 28, I was humbled to be ordained as a Permanent Deacon at Sacred Heart Cathedral in Salina by Bishop Vincke.

I'm originally from Denver, Colorado, one of 13 siblings, and I met Cindy while we were both attending Colorado Mesa University. We've been married 34 years and have two adult children: Jordan, a bio analyst researcher in Lincoln, NE, and Nicholas, an ACH specialist at KS State Bank here in Manhattan.

Cindy and I have been blessed to serve in many ministries at Seven Dolors over the years. I'm also active in the KofC and served as Faithful Navigator and Honor Guard Commander for the Msgr. Luckey Assembly, Fourth Degree.

My call to the Diaconate took root after reluctantly attending a men's retreat called The Gathering of Men in Estes Park, Co with my twin brother. I came home spiritually fired up, but like many, found myself pulled back into the busyness of secular life. About five years later, after daily Mass, Fr. Kerry surprised Cindy and me by asking, "Have you ever considered the Diaconate?", a question that sparked both laughter and surprise from both of us, and ultimately began a journey of deep prayer and discernment.

I entered the five-year program with Cindy's full support. She attended nearly every formation weekend and really enjoyed learning, especially not having to write the papers or take the tests! The program brought far more spiritual and personal growth than I expected. While I was initially hesitant to share my discernment with all of my siblings, the support I received was incredible. Ten of my twelve siblings were able to attend the ordination.

In a meaningful twist of grace, my sister recently sent me a photo of our dad in the seminary, he was dressed in an alb. The picture was taken right before he enlisted in the Navy during WWII. I had known he studied in the seminary, but I never truly understood that part of his story—until now.

As a deacon, I'm looking forward to assisting at Mass, celebrating baptisms, bringing communion to the homebound, and continuing to serve through Common Table, Good Shepherd, and wherever God calls me, I am here willing to help!

If I could offer one piece of advice to the next generation, it would be this:

"Allow yourself some grace. Life is very short—and you need to appreciate it with Jesus Christ as your Savior."

Many Blessings.....Deacon Tim
