JULY 20, 2025 + 16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's readings invite us to think about how we welcome God into our homes and our lives. They show us both action and listening are good.

In Genesis Abraham gives food and rest to three visitors. One of them tells him that Sarah will have a son. Abraham's welcome brings a blessing. In the psalm we are reminded that those who live with truth and fairness will stay close to God.

In the Gospel, Martha works while Mary listens. Jesus says Mary made the better choice. He is not upset with Martha, but he helps her see what matters most. The second reading points to the mystery of Christ. Paul shares this mystery through his work and suffering.

Important themes for today:

God's Promise: God promises Abraham a son. God always keeps His promises.

Suffering for the Faith: Paul rejoices in his sufferings. Hardships can strengthen our faith.

Listening to Jesus: Mary sits at Jesus' feet, we should all take time to listen to the Lord.

Balance of Work & Prayer: Martha and Mary show us the importance of both in our faith journey.

God's Blessing and Peace be with you! -Fr. Leo
