AUGUST 17, 2025 + 20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's second reading, we are told that Jesus endured the cross for the sake of the joy which lay before him. How can we appreciate Joy and the Cross together? A great part of Christ's joy is our resurrection to a glorified existence in the future life, which his cross was earning for us. Jesus can recognize eternal things beyond our perception. We are asked to believe in them without seeing them.

God wants no one to be lost eternally. He detests sin but he still loves us. He is always ready to grant a full pardon for every sin a person commits, if only we have the humility to say "mea culpa." Let those of us who strive to be faithful never let a day pass without a fervent prayer for the prodigal sons of God, that all may gain the humility to return to their father's home and ask for his pardon. Another grace that we must ask of God is that peace between fellow men will soon be restored. Christ foresaw that this concord would be broken, because of his very gospel of peace. We must pray for, and do everything we can to help bring about, a reunion between all Christians who are followers of Christ by their baptism. We are responsible for our own actions today, but not for the sin of the past. Let us put aside all prejudices and opinions.

God speed the day and let us each give him a helping hand in this work, when not only all Christians will be one, but when our Jewish and Muslim brothers and all our fellow men will be with us, thanking Christ for all that he has done for us. That day may still be a long way off, but every step we take towards bringing it about, is bringing us one step nearer to heaven and making us dearer to God.

God Bless,
Fr Leo
