NOVEMBER 2, 2025 + ALL SOULS

Today I am going to fill you in on several gifts that we have received and why they are where they are for the time being,

We have been gifted a statue of Saint Jude, currently displayed in front of the column next to the ambo, and an image of Jesus Christ King of all nations, currently displayed in the adoration chapel. Neither of these items will be permanently displayed in their current locations. I would happily accept any recommendations on how and where they would be best displayed.

St Jude, the apostle, has a broad following. He is the patron of lost causes and difficult cases. Many have turned to him in time of need and found relief. Please take advantage of the presence of his image in our church.

Jesus Christ King of all nations, is an image that the Bishop approved to be displayed in our churches in our diocese earlier this year as part of a traveling program that has been completed. When the painting was delivered here last week, it was only supposed to be here for a month, but now it is possible that it may be here permanently. Pray for this.

God bless,
Fr. Leo
