SEVEN DOLORS PARISH

Year in Review

As we continue our Christmas Journey, I hope everyone is receiving every blessing God has to offer. I am personally giving thanks to God for all of you and I am truly blessed to be the pastor of so vibrant a parish. As you can see in the graphic above, the parish has celebrated many wonderful Sacramental opportunities with our people, especially with our young people. That number will grow next year and hopefully for years to come.

I look forward to this coming year that will be so busy with SO MANY things both liturgical and functional to propel this beautiful Parish into the future that God has laid out for us. God Bless you and keep everyone of you close to His heart. AMEN.

Fr. Leo
