JANUARY 11, 2026 + THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

GO BE A WITNESS

GO: Despite not knowing whether his work would extend for years or decades, John the Baptist continued to lead others toward repentance. He did not know the full scope of his role in the plan of salvation, but he trusted in the voice of God. Like John, we are called to persevere in faithfulness to the work that God has called us to do, right where we are. When we persevere in our faith, living according to the teachings of Christ and our vocation, we give witness to the truth that the God who called us is worthy of our trust.

BE: Live as a disciple, listen and learn all that you can from sources available to you. All John had was the natural setting that he found himself in. Even so, he was able to be the disciple God called him to be, In his discipleship he was able to be the prophetic voice that declared the coming of Jesus and recognize him when he came.

WITNESS: Consider the countless men and women who have gone before us who remained faithful to God's call. Their lives bear witness to their trust in God, in big and in small ways, sometimes visible, but often hidden. What simple acts of faithfulness are you being called to persevere in today? Recommit to practicing faithfulness in the big – as well as mundane – aspects of daily living.

God Bless,
Fr. Leo
