APRIL 19, 2026 + THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Today's Gospel reveals Jesus as he walks with us, he is alive. We are told how His followers came to believe in the resurrection. He calls us to live with hope and trust in His promise.

In the first reading, Peter tells the crowd that Jesus' death and resurrection were part of God's plan. He speaks with courage, showing that the Holy Spirit gives strength to share the Good News.

The Gospel tells the story of the road to Emmaus. Two disciples walk with a stranger who explains the Scriptures to them. They finally recognize Him when He breaks bread. This moment shows how Jesus is present with us in Word and Sacrament.

Jesus gives Peter an opportunity for stewardship. The opportunity to serve, to feed his sheep. He boldly accepts. Jesus uses shepherds several times as an example of how to live. In the first century, the shepherd was the lowest rung on the social ladder, slightly below fishermen. Yet Jesus uses these two tasks, vocations, as examples of how to live a Christian life, life in Christ. He who exalts himself will be humbled, and, he who humbles himself will be exalted.

Love, give, live life in service of others (Stewardship). Follow Christ's example all the way to eternal life.

God bless,
Fr. Leo
