STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

"For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..."

Philippians 3:8

Learning to detach ourselves from our material possessions and seeing them as "rubbish" is an important step in growing closer to Jesus Christ. Then we are able to give more freely and joyfully.

"Por El he aceptado la pérdida de todas las cosas y las considero basura, que podre ganar a Cristo..."

Filipenses 3:8

El aprender a desprendernos de nuestras posesiones materiales y verlas como "basura" es un paso importante para acercarnos más a Jesucristo. De esta manera, somos capaces de dar más libremente y con alegría.

As outlined in a previous bulletin this quarter, the "Stewards of Hope" is a pastoral plan for the Diocese of Salina. The plan has four phases, with each phase divided into sections. Each section deals with one aspect of the Diocese's life as a Christian community. In the year of 2013, we are in the Third Phase, "Life and Family." The concentration continues. During the month of March the diocese is focusing Youth and Young Adult Ministry. One goal for our parish is to encourage young people to participate in CYO, Mass, Prayer in Action and other youth-oriented programs. Our youth leaders do a great job. How might you encourage the youth of Seven Dolores parish? What would you like to see happen? What are your ideas?

LEARNING ABOUT THE DOCUMENTS OF THE 2ND VATICAN COUNCIL

October 11, 2012, marked the 50th anniversary of the opening session of the Second Vatican Council. The Council produced 16 Conciliar documents. Parish Staff Members have taken time to summarize the documents and their thoughts will be shared with you through the Bulletin, one document per week.

Decree On the Apostolate of the Laity or Apostolicam Actuositatem, as summarized by Rosie Rundell, Pastoral Associate

"In the Church there is diversity of ministry but unity of mission. To the apostles and their successors Christ has entrusted the office of teaching, sanctifying, and governing in his name and by his power." According to this document, however, the laity also shares in the priestly, prophetic, and kingly office of Christ and have their own assignment in the mission of the whole People of God. By this decree, the laity is called to lead a life in the midst of the world and of secular affairs while at the same time being called by God to make of their apostolate, through the vigor of the Christian spirit, a leaven in the world. This decree went on to say that in the concrete, the lay apostolate is exercised when the faithful work at the evangelization and sanctification of others, as well as when they endeavor to have the Gospel spirit permeate and improve the temporal order, going about it in a way that bears clear witness to Christ and helps forward the salvation of all. Called by this decree, it is the work of lay persons to assist pastors in passing on and clarifying the proper scale of values on the temporal order and direct it towards God through Christ. Attention was given to the matter of education and formation in regards to the lay apostolate.

The Salina Diocese offers those who are called to ministry, opportunities to be well formed doctrinally, spiritually, theologically, and pastorally. Currently, the Dodge City Diocese and the Salina Diocese offers classes through ITV for certification as Pastoral Associates and Parish Life Coordinators.

Q & A Ultimate Catholic Trivia

How well do you know the faith?

- 1. Abstaining is (a) "doing without" meat or another food/drink (b) limiting the amount of food one eats (c) staying up all night to pray (d) keeping strict silence for 24 hours
- 2. The Sunday on which the Passion of Our Lord is read is called (a) Palm Sunday (b) Gaudete Sunday (c) Easter Sunday (d) Pentecost
- 3. "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit," were Jesus' words as (a) he died on the cross (b) he prayed in the garden (c) he carried the cross (d) he was crowned with thorns

Answers:

1. (a) Abstaining from meat is required on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent. Fasting is limiting the amount of food eaten. Fasting is required on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday. Both can be voluntary practices of self-denial for other times.
2. (a) We read the Passion of the Lord on Palm Sunday, or Passion Sunday—the Sunday before Easter. We take turns reading Matthew's, Mark's and Luke's version of the Passion in a three-year cycle. John's version of the Passion is read every Good Friday.
3. (a) These were among Jesus' last words on the cross. We can use them as a prayer ourselves whenever we are troubled or afraid.

RCIA We are celebrating the Scrutinies for three weeks. Scrutinies include special prayers for those being baptized on Easter Vigil and the laying on of hands. This week's gospel is the raising of Lazarus. Please keep Zach Martin, Colin Kirchhoff, Megan Click, Tim Click, Chloè Houston, Liz Kozlowski, Ombre Velarde, David McKee, Nicholais Guevara, Grethel Busot, and Steven Hartwick in your prayers as they continue their journey to the Catholic Church.

Next Wednesday's, March 20, topic is "God's Prescription for Grief." GRIEF SHARE. We'll discuss how relationships, past and present, affect your grief. We'll also discuss unresolved conflict with a deceased love one. The GriefShare videos cover topics essential to your recovery from the hurt of grief and loss. You are welcome to come to any or all. Meetings are Wednesday evenings at 6:30 PM in the Seven Dolores Parish Center, 731 Pierre.

From The Register: Friday Penance Restored

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, through its Committee for Pro-Life Activities and Religious Liberty, has urged bishops to recommend Friday abstinence for the people of their dioceses.

The bishops' committee sees Friday abstinence as a spiritual effort undertaken for the sake of the protection of human life, the sanctity of marriage and religious liberty. While these are more than worthwhile reasons, I would add that abstinence is likewise an ancient Church discipline that helps free us from what might otherwise own us (and our souls). It helps to make room for the joy and hope that only God can give.

For all these reasons, I am asking that the faithful of the Diocese of Salina immediately return to this ancient practice of the Church.

There are other factors at issue here, as well. Many are unaware that the Church, after the Second Vatican Council, never changed its ancient custom of observing Fridays as penitential days. Friday abstinence was never abolished. Rather, the Church allowed bishops conferences around the world to determine whether or not Friday abstinence could be substituted with a different penance.

When the U.S. bishops conference permitted Catholics to exchange the Friday abstinence for a different form of penance, it seems that the notion of a Friday penance disappeared entirely. This was never the intention of the bishops at the Second Vatican Council. I fear that we were unwise in our rush to get rid of this ancient practice, allowing ourselves to blend in with our generally non-believing culture.

While I believe a return to Friday abstinence a true benefit for the Church, I would note that this is a strongly recommended spiritual endeavor. It is not law, and scrupulosity is to be avoided. Children in public schools, residents of nursing homes and care facilities and others without control over their diet may substitute a different form of penance on Fridays, as is already allowed by the bishops' conference legislation.

Moreover, pastors may dispense their parishioners or even their entire parish for special celebrations.

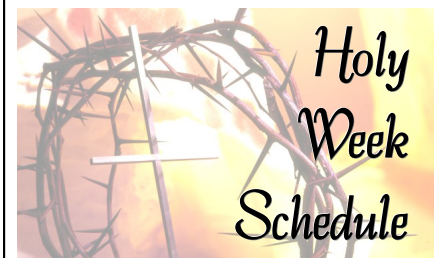

Three additional points are worth noting. The first is that abstinence from certain foods for spiritual purposes is well-grounded in Scripture. In Daniel 10:2-3, we read of Daniel taking no delicacies, no meat, no wine and not anointing himself for three weeks while he was in mourning. As Jesus was crucified on a Friday, abstinence from meat on that day each week is a way of entering into the penitential spirit of the day. The fish, typically consumed in its place (but not required), is a symbol of Christ. It should be noted that those who cannot eat meat for medical or dietary reasons may continue to substitute a different penance, such as abstinence from a different but still preferred food.

*Secondly, it is good for us to stand out, to be a little prophetic and not to blend in with a culture that is harming its members in so many ways. The English historian Eamon Duffy published a 2004 call for a return to Friday abstinence in the journal The Tablet. He noted that Friday abstinence was a focus of Catholic identity that transcended class and educational barriers, even uniting "good" and "bad" Catholics in a single eloquent observance.*

And finally, while it may be trendy to embrace a vegetarian lifestyle for health, environmental or ethical reasons, we enter into the Friday abstinence for matters of the soul. If the world thinks us odd, then we are in good company with St. Paul, who was known to call himself "a fool for Christ." If we want to be different from the culture around us — and different for all the right reasons — then we need to do things in a different way.

The purpose of the abstinence remains primarily spiritual as a penance, a recalling of the Lord's passion. It also can unite us spiritually to those who do not have enough food for the day. But as a public witness, it clearly adds to our Catholic identity. For that reason, it may be far more needed today than when it was observed more faithfully 50 years ago.

-Bishop Edward J. Weisenburger

March 11, 2013

Dear Families, Parishioners and Alumni:

In light of the Newtown, CT, tragedy, Manhattan Catholic Schools has investigated the cost of replacing our front door and adding security measures to ensure that the building is as secure and safe as possible. This project will cost Manhattan Catholic Schools $11,550. This cost includes a new front door (that has already been installed) as well as three cameras and monitors for security purposes. To keep our doors locked and secure at all times, monitors will be placed in the main office, the library for the after school program and the child care room. We have had several parents offer to make donations to this cause and we are hoping that with donations of any amount we can cover the cost of this new project. Your donation of $10.00, $25.00, $50.00 or $100 or more will make all the difference in the world.

Manhattan Catholic Schools did not budget for this type of contingency. We are praying that the generosity of families, parishioners and alumni will help create a safe environment for the MCS children and religious education students. This improvement to our facility and newly developed emergency plans will help keep our students safer in the future. Your donation will be greatly appreciated. Contributions can be made payable to Manhattan Catholic Schools, 306 S. Juliette, Manhattan, KS 66502.

Sincerely,

Mr. Scott Hulshoff
