STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

"Watch carefully then how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise..."
 EPHESIANS 5:15

A wise person recognizes that all we have comes from God. A wise person thanks God every day for all His many blessings. A wise person realizes that God has blessed us for a reason and He wants us to be partners with Him in His work here on earth.

"Así que tengan cuidado de su manera de vivir. No vivan como necios sino como sabios..."
 EFESIOS 5:15

Una persona sabia reconoce que todo lo que tenemos viene de Dios. Una persona sabia agradece a Dios todos los días por todas Sus bendiciones. Una persona sabia se da cuenta que Dios nos ha bendecido por un motivo y que Él quiere que seamos Sus socios en Su trabajo aquí en la tierra.

RCIA

Christian Formation Process

Now is the time for our parish to reach out to those who we think might be looking for what is missing in their lives. Could it be faith? A faith community? How can you reach out to them without being intrusive? Each week, you've been reading about one of four steps that can help you to spread the word about RCIA – the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. We hope this can help you be confident in “being a disciple of Christ” through the Catholic Church.

Come with them to the first session of Inquiry at Seven Dolors in the church basement on Thursday, September 10th at 7:00 pm.

If you have questions, call Rosie at the office or email her at formation@sevendolors.com.

Manhattan Catholic Charities offers counseling/therapy services to individuals, couples, families and adolescents. Therapy services are offered based on a reduced, sliding fee scale.

Contact Jessica Palen, Licensed Master Social Worker, at the Catholic Charities Manhattan office for more details at 785-323-0644. (extension 203).

RCIA Team • Have you ever wondered how the RCIA process works? It takes a team of people to carry out all the necessary facets of the process. Team members take an active role in just BEING PRESENT – it's all about Catholic hospitality. At each session, a team member sits at a table with the candidates/ catechumens listening to the discussions and sharing their own Catholic faith. One common fear is that a team member is expected to know everything about the Catholic church. NO ONE knows everything. All we ask is that you share your Catholic faith and identity. Team members set up the refreshments and greet people at the door. Please consider joining the RCIA Team. Call Rosie at the parish office, 565-5000.

Are you dealing with the death of your spouse, a parent, a sibling, a child or a friend? Come to any or all of a series of meetings to help you understand, cope, and heal through a process called GriefShare. Whether it's been one month, one year or 10 years, GriefShare can help you heal from the loss of your loved one. Each week the group will watch a video seminar on DVD. Our next series of GriefShare will begin on Tuesday, August 18. The topic is "Is This Normal?" You wake up and the grief is still there; thirty minutes later you're still at the bathroom sink, toothbrush in hand. You can't remember your co-worker's name...again. Tears come without warning. The knife in your heart twists and turns. Other people just don't get it; they go about their days as if nothing has changed. How long is it going to be like this? I don't know if I can make it through; you worry. Does this sound familiar? Meetings are Monday evenings at 6:30 PM in the Seven Dolors Parish Center, 731 Pierre. You are welcome to come to any or all sessions. For more information call the Parish at 565-5000.
