STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." Mark 10:45

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and grace? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others.

"Porque ni aun el Hijo del hombre vino para que le sirvan, sino para servir y para dar su vida en rescate por muchos." Marcos 10:45

Si pudiera ver su vida reflejada en el espejo, ¿reflejaría el amor y gracia de Dios? Si usted tiene dificultad con esto, intente cambiar su actitud de "quiero más" a "gracias Señor por todo lo que me has dado, tengo lo suficiente para compartir". Este cambio de perspectiva le traerá dicha por medio del servicio a los demás.

NEW DOORS

One cannot help but notice the new doors on the main entrance to the Church. Thank you to those who donated and others who volunteered their labor to this project.

The new doors give us an occasion to pause and reflect on the meaning of doors, especially to a Church.

When you step through the doorway of a church, you are leaving the outer-world behind and entering an inner world. The outside world is a place abounding in life and activity, but also a mingling of the base and ugly. It is a sort of a market place, crossed and re-crossed by all. There is something profane but not bad about it. Behind the church doors is an inner place, separated from all this activity and market place. It is a silent and holy spot.

It is true that the whole world has been created by God and we may meet anywhere, that all we receive is from God's hand, and when thankfully received, is holy. Nevertheless women and men have always felt that certain places were in a special manner set apart and dedicated to God.

Between the outer and inner world are the doors. They are the barriers between the market place and the sanctuary, between what belongs to the world at large and what has been consecrated to God. And the doors warn humans who open them to go inside that they must leave at the door the thoughts, wishes and cares which are here out of place. The place you are entering is holy ground.

Do not rush through the doors. Let us take time to open our hearts to their meaning and pause a moment. In this way, our entering will be an act that is fully intended and reflected upon.

(These words and thoughts are from Romano Guardini's outstanding little book entitled SACRED SIGNS. We will finish his reflection on the meaning of doors next week)

The 3rd Annual CYO Bierock Sale

Liturgical Renewal

We will have a change in our Liturgical Renewal process. In recent years, we have been meeting between Masses during a weekend near the beginning of the new liturgical year. Our new Liturgical Minister Reflection Day will be held during Lent. Watch the bulletin around that time for more details.

Update on (Rev.) Joseph Popelka

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Below you will find a message directly from Fr. Joseph Popelka, your former pastor. From the time of his leave of absence I have been in regular contact with him, including in-person meetings. As you will read below, following his leave of absence Father undertook an extended spiritual retreat. He likewise has consulted with trusted individuals. The result is that he has elected to leave priestly ministry. While such a decision always involves sadness for us all, it is perhaps important to recall that the ministry he offered generously in the past is in no way diminished. It is my hope that each of you will keep him in prayer as he discerns his future.

May God bless you abundantly.

Bishop Edward J. Weisenburger

During these days of rest, I have taken the opportunity to attend an extended retreat and to take significant time to reflect and pray. I have discovered that during my 23 years as a priest that a certain peace was lacking in my life. The stress involved in priestly ministry also was a great burden. This has become stronger in the past three years since my parents' deaths. For this reason, I will not be returning to the priestly ministry. While I am firm in my decision to seek laicization, I will miss and always treasure the blessing of being a part of people's lives.

(Rev.) Joseph Popelka

CYO would like to ask the parish to pray for our journey. We have 18 youth and 11 adults attending. We do still have a few youth that could use some financial help to attend the conference. If you can offer assistance in this regard, any donation for scholarships would be appreciated!

A NOTE FROM THE FINANCE OFFICE

Thank you so much for your continued dedication to our Capital Campaign. It is wonderful to see so many envelopes included in our Regular Collection every week.

We would like to ask for one small favor: please make sure to write a separate check for the Capital Campaign and do not include the Capital Campaign on one check for multiple envelopes.

Your attention to this matter will help our Money Counters, the Finance Office and Pledge Redemption Company to keep track of pledges with the most accuracy possible.

Thank you for your consideration.

SDCW Annual Rosary

The SDCW will be praying a special rosary on October 25, for all women of Seven Dolores, living and deceased. Rosary will begin in church at 5PM and be followed by a potluck salad supper in the church basement. After supper Sister Margaret Nacke will give a presentation on the scourge of human trafficking. Sister Margaret, who lives in Belleville, KS, founded the Bakhita Initiative. Its goals are to create a specific nationwide network of Catholic Sisters involved in efforts to end human trafficking. She was awarded a grant enabling her to develop a database that includes 90 congregations of sisters, networks and collaborations where there is a strong presence of sisters who address human trafficking. Please join us for this evening of sisterhood. This is open to all women.

Notice for St. Patrick's Parishioners:

Fr. Kerry will host a general parish meeting after the 4:15 Mass on October 24 to discuss liturgical ministries, parish care and parish finances. The meeting should last about 30 minutes.

Church Basement and School/Gym Rental

It seems like in this day and age everything we do is becoming more complicated. Speaking of complicated, we are being asked to change the way we rent the church basement and school gym. As always, we will continue to rent these spaces for a donation. That has not changed. However, due to insurance concerns, we are going to have to start requiring that the person responsible for the rental provide a copy of their homeowners insurance listing that coverage has been extended for the rental event. Although this seems like a burdensome request, insurance companies are actually used to getting these requests and it should be relatively easy for them to provide you with this. We apologize for the inconvenience, but if this allows us to continue renting the space for birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, etc., then it is a small price to pay. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

On October 22, Fr. Kerry will talk about Morality and Social Justice to the Inquirers. We meet in the Tower Room of the Utopia annex at 7p.m. If you have questions, call Rosie at the office or email her at

CANCER AWARENESS (Healing Mass)

In light of our awareness of cancer during the month of October, Seven Dolors will have a special Mass for those affected by cancer on Monday, October 19th at 6 pm. At this Mass, we will celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. If you are affected by cancer or another serious illness, we invite you to this Mass.

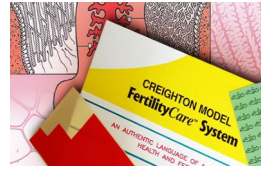

In your November envelope packet, you will find an envelope marked "All Souls Day." This envelope is to remember deceased persons who are special to you. The envelopes will be placed in a basket on a stand next to the altar on Nov. 1st weekend and they will be remembered at Mass. The monies in the envelopes will be used toward our Parish Charity, Memorial and Mass Funds. We will publish the names of your Beloved Deceased in a future bulletin. You will also have the opportunity to write their names in the Book of the Dead in the Sanctuary. Note that we have two Masses on All Souls' Day (Monday, Nov. 2nd): 7:00 and 5:20.

Save-A-Label

For the past 25 years, many of you have been faithfully clipping and saving Best Choice UPC codes. I started collecting the codes for the benefit of Seven Dolors Adult Choir. Since that time I have redeemed around 75,000 codes resulting in approximately $2,200 for the choir. Thank you so much to everyone who saved, whether it was one code or a sack full. I never knew where they came from but you all know, and I want you to know how much I appreciate your efforts. Since Ray's Supermarket has closed, we no longer have a source for Best Choice products in Manhattan that I know of. If you still have codes you have not sent, go ahead and send them as I need 1,000 to mail at a time and I have around 600. God bless you all! -Delores Thomas
