STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

"He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." Acts 10:38

On this Easter Sunday, allow Jesus to fill your mind, body and soul. Pray for guidance on how to live your life, open your heart to those in need and give thanks to God for all that He has given you.

"Él anduvo haciendo el bien y sanando a todos los oprimidos por el diablo; porque Dios estaba con Él"
Hechos de los Apóstoles 10:38

En este domingo de Pascua, permítele a Jesús que llene tu mente, tu cuerpo y tu alma. Ora para obtener orientación sobre cómo vivir tu vida, abre tu corazón a los necesitados y da gracias a Dios por todo lo que te ha dado.

“We are witnesses!”

Today’s scripture readings concentrate on details reported by eyewitnesses. Listen carefully and you will be drawn into the stories yourself. Peter reports the good works Jesus did, his death on the cross, and his resurrection. The passage from John’s Gospel has us running to the empty tomb with Peter and John and peering inside to see the cloths used to cover Jesus’ body. Psalm 118 sums up our response: “It is wonderful in our eyes!”

What resurrection details do we see in our lives today? How have we died to our old lives and been raised up again with Jesus? Let us pay attention to the new life around us. It is wonderful in our eyes.

GriefShare

This week's topic:
"Complicating Factors".
You can't remember the last time you smiled. And you can't concentrate long enough to follow a box-mix, blueberry muffin recipe. Grief can be complicated, and it is relentless. Not only do you have to deal with the pain of your loved one being gone, but you face many other symptoms day and night that people around you don't realize you're struggling with.

Join us each Tuesday at 6:30pm in the Parish Center, 731 Pierre. For more information call Rosie 785-565-5000.

Rachel's Vineyard: Healing the pain of abortion one weekend at a time

Divine Mercy- April 3rd

Our parish will host a Divine Mercy hour of prayer on Sunday, April 3rd at 3:00 pm. This devotion was established by St. John Paul II for the 2nd Sunday of Easter. All are welcome.

AN INVITATION TO MERCY

POPE FRANCIS

Mercy is the very foundation of the Church's life. All of her pastoral activity should be caught up in the tenderness she makes present to believers; nothing in her preaching and in her witness to the world can be lacking in mercy. The Church's very credibility is seen in how she shows merciful and compassionate love. The Church "has an endless desire to show mercy." Perhaps we have long since forgotten how to show and live the way of mercy. The temptation, on the one hand, to focus exclusively on justice made us forget that this is only the first, albeit necessary and indispensable step. But the Church needs to go beyond and strive for a higher and more important goal. On the other hand, sad to say, we must admit that the practice of mercy is waning in the wider culture. In some cases the word seems to have dropped out of use. However, without a witness to mercy, life becomes fruitless and sterile, as if sequestered in a barren desert. The time has come for the Church to take up the joyful call to mercy once more. It is time to return to the basics and to bear the weaknesses and struggles of our brothers and sisters. Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope.
