THE GIFT OF PEACE

We Catholics begin the New Year celebrating the combined feasts of Mary, Mother of God and the World Day of Peace. Pope Paul VI intentionally combined these two feasts calling attention to our one human family and our common identity as children of God. In the news of 2017, we saw the need for our nation (and the world) to heal the wounds of racism and sexism. Celebrating Mary as our Mother reminds us that each of us is a child of God, and adopted sister/brother to her Son. This truth celebrates the basic dignity of each person. In Catholic theology, this is the basis for the respect that all persons from womb to tomb are entitled and this respect is the foundation for World Peace.

*Holy Desperation:
Praying as if Your Life Depends on It
by Heather King*

One of the best presentations of the Gospel that I have read in a long time. I love all of Ms. King's writing, but this is by far her best. She combines humor, brokenness and God's love of us in the midst of it all. Many reviewers said this is a book everyone should read and I could not agree more.

2018 Women's Spirituality Conference

This year's conference is much earlier than years past. On Saturday, February 3, come share the day of Prayer and Retreat with Sarah Hart. Sarah is one of the leading figures in contemporary Catholic music today. Her songs of faith have touched the lives of millions. Originally from Lancaster, OH, she has a degree in music from Ohio State University. Now based in Nashville, she's on the road a good part of the year juggling songwriting, recording, concerts, and a full events schedule. Sarah's songs are part of the common worship experience of Catholics in the US: "Go in Peace," "You Alone," "Sweet Redeemer" and others.

Her signature blend of folk, pop, and rock delights listeners of every age. She often co-writes with artists like Curtis Stephan, Steve Angrisano, and Jesse Manibusan. Her songs have been covered by Amy Grant, Celtic Women, Matt Maher, Jason Crabb and The Newsboys. Grant's recording of Sarah's "Better than a Hallelujah" earned a Best Gospel Song Grammy nomination.

Sarah's dynamic energy, sense of humor and deep faith make her retreats unforgettable experiences. She especially enjoys exploring topics around women's ministry and spirituality. In October of 2013, Sarah was invited to perform for Pope Francis and a crowd of 150,000 in St. Peter's Square. Sarah lives in Nashville with her husband and two daughters. You can pick up registration forms in the parish office, the back of church or you can register online at www.womensspiritualconference.org.

Women's Spirituality Conference is jointly sponsored by the St. Thomas More & Seven Dolours Women's Groups.

This event is held annually at St. Thomas More Parish Center.

Giving Tree Thanks

Thank you to all who took a tag from the Advent Giving Tree. You made someone's Christmas extra-special this year. We are a very generous parish.

Thanks!

Ladies of Seven Dolors prepare Giving Tree gifts for pick up.

Adoration Chapel TESTIMONIAL

"It took me two years to finally decide to at least try an hour in the Adoration Chapel. How could I pray for a whole hour?! Now I say 'Is my hour up already?' How did this conversion take place? It happened by spending time in the Chapel with Jesus! I had to be open to God's call and being in a holy place, on sacred ground, in the Real Presence, is where this happened for me. St. Joseph's Eucharistic Adoration Chapel is that place. Come and see!!"

SOCIAL ACTION

The Social Action Commission met and evaluated the use of Recycling Bin that is located behind the Luckey building. Remember this is for those who cannot take their recycling material to Howie's. So far, it has worked out very well. We feel it is encouraging those who have not recycled, to try it. One of the other assignments for the Social Action Commission is to develop a "Plan and Prepare" Action Plan for emergency prepared for your parish and our homes. This would include any type of disaster – fire, flood, identity, and tornado.

Much of this will be discussed at the January Parish Pastoral Council meeting on January 15th. Social Action Commission meeting is January 25 at 5:30 pm in the Parish Center.

GriefShare

Are you dealing with the death of your spouse, a parent, a sibling, a child or a friend? Come to any or all of a series of meetings to help you understand, cope, and heal through a process called GriefShare. No matter how much time has passed, GriefShare can help you heal. Each week the group will watch a video seminar on DVD. The GriefShare videos cover topics essential to your recovery. We will begin a new set of videos on Tuesday, January 16 at 6:30PM in the Seven Dolors Parish Center, 731 Pierre, Manhattan.

January Celebrations & Saints

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus, which is celebrated on January 3. The first eight days of January fall during the liturgical season known as Christmas which is represented by the liturgical color white. The remaining days of January are the beginning of Ordinary Time. The liturgical color changes to green — a symbol of the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

On January 1 we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God – The Octave Day of the Nativity of the Lord. One of the most outstanding characteristics of Mary is her willingness to know and do God's will. While we would like to follow her example, we wonder how she was so sure of it. Today's Gospel gives a clue. She reflected on events that happened and were happening. She meditated. In our busy lives today, we often overlook meditation as a prayer. There are many resources in our Adoration Chapel and online. What is YOUR New Year's Resolution for your Catholic Faith?

Saints and Feasts for January

Jan. 2-Sts. Basil the Great and Gregory Nazianzen

Jan. 4-St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Jan. 7-Epiphany

Jan. 8-The Baptism of the Lord

Jan. 17-St. Anthony, Abbot

Jan. 24-St. Francis de Sales

Jan. 25-Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul

Jan. 26-Sts. Timothy and Titus

Jan. 31-St. John Bosco

Returning to Ordinary Time

The winter portion of Ordinary Time is but a few weeks. We may think that this time is ordinary in the sense of “run of the mill.” However, the term ordinary derives from the word “ordinal,” or numbered, as the Sundays in Ordinary time are numerically ordered. The time between the close of Christmas Time with the Baptism of the Lord and Ash Wednesday's introduction to Lent does not have to be fallow; it can be a time in which our faith can flourish and grow, “greening” in the spirit of this season's liturgical color. Perhaps one of the great opportunities of Ordinary Time – whether in winter or summer – is to make our discipleship visible not only through our words but also through our deeds. In this way, Ordinary Time becomes anything BUT ordinary. (Taken from Sourcebook)

RCIA

The Period of the Precatechumenate came to an end at the celebration of the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens which was held last November. Thus began the Period of the Catechumenate. The catechumenate is an extended period during which the candidates are given suitable pastoral formation and guidance, aimed at training them in the Christian life. In this way, the dispositions manifested that their acceptance into the catechumenate are brought to maturity through Word (Kerygma), Community (Koinonia) and Worship (Leitourgia), and Apostolic Life (Diakonia). The instruction that the catechumens and candidates receive during this period should be of a kind that while presenting Catholic teaching in its entirety also enlighten faith, directs the heart toward God, fosters participation in the liturgy, inspires apostolic activity, and nurtures a life completely in accord with the spirit of Christ. If you worship at the 10am Mass on Sunday's, you see the Dismissal Rite as a leader takes them downstairs to Break Open the Word – delving into the Sunday Scriptures and the homily. Why do we do “dismissal?” St. Augustine says in a sermon that the practice would hopefully make them curious. By not participating in the Liturgy of the Eucharist, they would naturally wonder what they are missing. Augustine believed that this intrigue would keep them returning for instruction so that they could one day be admitted to the rest of the Liturgy.

In this day and age, it is more importantly seen as an outreach of pastoral care. They are not really “dismissed” from Mass but are “dismissed” into catechesis to help them reflect more deeply on the Word of God and learn to recognize God's presence in their lives the rest of the week until they are baptized or make their profession of faith. Please keep in prayer: Kristi Traffas, Garrett Ellis, Kari and Jason Humes, Miranda Boatwright, Suzie Larson, Taylor Skelton and Aidan Bruley.

JANUARY 22 - The Miracle of Fr. Kapaun

Emil Kapaun—priest, soldier and Korean War hero—was a rare man. He was awarded posthumously the Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military award, and is also being considered by the Vatican for canonization as a saint. Just as remarkable are the many non-Catholic witnesses who attest to Father Kapaun's heroism: the Protestants, Jews, and Muslims who either served with the military chaplain in the thick of battle or endured with him the incredibly brutal conditions of a prisoner of war camp. These Korean War veterans, no matter their religion, agree that Father Kapaun did more to save lives and maintain morale than any other man they know.

Chaffee Family: STEWARDSHIP SPOTLIGHT

The Chaffees have been members of Seven Dolors for fourteen years. They “parish-hopped”, choosing Mass times that were convenient, until one afternoon, while in the hospital after Suzie’s birth, Ann received a visit from Father Grennan. “Prior to his visit, I never felt connected to any one church. I realized then that your church is like an extended family, and you need to keep in touch in order to maintain a relationship with that family.”

They feel there are so many benefits to becoming active in your church community. They have gotten to know so many wonderful people since starting to volunteer for things, and really feel rooted in the community because of the relationships with these people.

Passing on an attitude of stewardship to our children is important to them. "We want them to grow into adults who get involved with their church and schools. We want them to be aware of the needs of others, and to do something to help."

Their advice is to pick one aspect of church life, and jump in. It usually turns out to be much more enjoyable and rewarding than you would have imagined.

CYO/YDisciple Sponsorship

CYO/YDisciple is Seven Dolors' High School Religious Education group. Currently, we have a weekly attendance of 30-40 young people. Though it may seem attendance should be easy for our youth, please know that many of them give up their after school jobs to attend or go without dinner after sports practice to be on time to our weekly events. These teens are involved in so many activities in our community that we sometimes miss their constant presence at church beyond attendance - however, they are still altar servers, musicians, puppeteers, cantors & hospitality. They also serve our diocese on the youth council - 11 representatives from Seven Dolors in the last six years.

This group receives a budget for programming, but all other costs are met with parent support, their after school jobs or fundraising (most recently bierock sales & fireworks).

We will have a 'Giving Wall' sponsorship fundraiser on the weekends of January 27/28 and February 3/4. Numbered envelopes will be available to pick up before and after Mass. The number is considered the minimum donation for the purpose of the envelope taken. You may specify how you would like your funds to be used (Annual Diocesan CYO Conference, Steubenville Summer Conference, Prayer & Action Summer Mission, NCYC 2019 or Greatest Need). We humbly ask you to please consider a sponsorship and return the envelopes to the weekly collection or parish center. Your generosity in nurturing the youth of our parish is much appreciated!

Annunciation House

Annunciation House has been working in El Paso/Ciudad Juarez since 1978 operating houses of hospitality for migrants and refugees. Annunciation House is a Catholic organization that accompanies the migrant, homeless, and economically vulnerable peoples of the border region through hospitality, advocacy, and education. It has an all volunteer staff who place themselves among these poor so as transform their understanding of what constitutes more just relationships between peoples, countries, and economies. Currently our parish has a special connection with Annunciation House as our parishioner and seminarian Chris Davis is ministering there.

As we are all called by our baptismal priesthood, this organization has been a motivating factor in Chris' discernment process in his journey toward priesthood, possibly with the Jesuit order. As we all know, our vocational journey can take us many places. At this time, Chris is caring for those who are on the margins of life in El Paso as he continues the discernment process. Please keep Chris and all seminarians in your prayers, as well as all religious vocations: priesthood, diaconate, religious life for both men and women and Lay Ministers. For more information on Annunciation House, check out their website at <https://annunciationhouse.org>.
