A Message from Bishop Vincke

The Diocese of Salina will be publishing on Friday, March 29th the names of priests who have substantiated or credible allegations of sexual abuse of minors made against them since the year 1900. "Credible allegation" means there is a reasonable certainty that the accusation is true and that the sexual abuse of a minor has occurred. The names will be published in the diocesan newspaper which every registered household receives as well as on the diocesan website. Many of the priests on the list are deceased, but not all. Many had already been exposed as abusers, but some of the names will be new.

Also in the diocesan newspaper, the Midwest Province of the Capuchins will be releasing the names of priests and brothers who have credible allegations of sexual abuse of minors against them. The publication of names is following the national effort to be more transparent as well as accountable.

We had a listening session last fall, attended by over 200 people from all three Manhattan parishes. All Manhattan pastors were there, as well as Bishop Vincke. This was a healing moment for those who were present.

This is a painful time for the Church. It can be difficult to withstand the criticisms we receive from those outside the Church. It is also painful to experience disappointment and scandal from our leaders.

Let us together pray for the victims, for their healing and their ability to know Christ's love despite the spiritual and psychological stress laid upon them. May we all come to know the suffering Savior in a deeper way because of this cross we bear together. May we have confidence in knowing that those who die with him also rise with him. May we, along with the victims and even the abusers, experience that resurrection both now and in the life to come.

A Message from the Seven Dolors Staff

The Diocese of Salina, in order to protect our most vulnerable parishioners, requires background checks and extensive training for anyone who works with or around children and youth.

We at Seven Dolors are in full compliance with this policy. If you, or someone you know, has been a victim of sexual abuse within the diocese, please feel free to contact the diocese using the information found to the right.

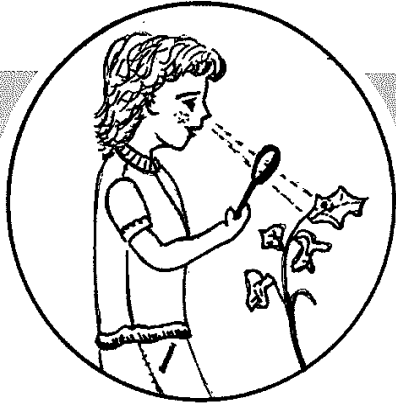

A Listening Session with Bishop Vincke and Fr. Christopher Popravak, O.F.M. will be scheduled within the diocese soon. Details on the Listening Session will be included in the March 29 Register. Please keep all involved in your prayers as we work to move forward as a faith community.

Parish Priests and Deacon:
Pastor, Fr. Kerry Ninemire
Parochial Vicar, Fr. Carlos Ruiz Santos
Retired, In Residence, Fr. Merlin Kieffer
Deacon, Ed Souza
