“I was a stranger, and you invited Me in” - Mt 25:35

The Hospitality Ministry is one of the most rewarding and exciting ministries of our Church. The ability to greet and welcome the parishioners and visitors to our beautiful Church is extremely satisfying. We realize that as hospitality ministers we are the first and last impression one might get of our parish and its people. A cheerful smile, helpful direction, and casual conversation can go a long way in welcoming one to our home the Church. The Hospitality Ministry is always looking for individuals, couples or families to join our crew.

Hospitality currently entails welcoming church goers and assisting with any needs that might arise such as seating or the location of other needed amenities (restrooms). Upon the conclusion of the Mass you will hand out bulletins and well-wish our guests. Once the Church has emptied out we straighten up the pews and return the missalette to the proper location within the pews. Most volunteers will be assigned once a month for service and are asked to give a mass time preference and necessary block-out dates. Schedules are set up on a three-month basis and substitutes are available upon emergency basis if needed.

We do want to thank all the parishioners and guest for their patience and prayers over the last year. The need to shut down services completely and then transition to socially distanced service has been very challenging. Our team had to find a way to close off pews and sanitize after each service and maintain maximum greeting with minimal members. Great appreciation is due to the Grubbs Family, Frakes Family, Irvine Family, Price Family, Wright Family, McCoy Family and Lucille Johnson for their service. Thanks also to Fr. Merlin, Deacon Ed, and Fr. Kerry for their leadership and guidance over the past year. Without their strong presence and thinking outside the box our return to normalcy would not have been possible.

25 Ways to make kids safer

At Home

1. Teach children their full name, address and home telephone number. Make sure they know your full name and how to reach you at work or on your cellphone.
2. Teach children how and when to call 911, and make sure they have a trusted adult to call if they're scared or have an emergency.
3. Instruct children to keep doors locked and not to open doors to talk to anyone when they are home alone.
4. Choose babysitters with care. Ask children about their experiences and listen carefully to their responses.

Out and About

5. Walk or drive the route to and from school with children, pointing out landmarks and safe places to go if they need help.
6. Remind children not to play alone outside, to take a friend whenever they walk or bike to school and to stay with a group when going on outings.
7. Take children on a walking tour of the neighborhood. Tell them whose homes they may visit without you.
8. Teach children to ask permission before leaving home.

9. Remind children it is OK to say no to anything making them feel scared, uncomfortable or confused. Teach children to tell you if anything or anyone makes them feel this way.
10. Teach children to never approach a vehicle, occupied or not, unless they are accompanied by a parent or other trusted adult.
11. Caution children never to accept a ride from anyone unless you have told them it is OK to do so in each instance.
12. Teach children to check in with you if there is a change of plans.
13. Establish a central, easy-to-locate spot during family outings to meet should you get separated.
14. Teach children how to locate help in public places. Identify people they can ask for help such as uniformed law enforcement/security guards and store clerks with nametags.
15. Help children learn to recognize and avoid potential risks so they can address them if they happen.
16. Teach children if anyone tries to grab them, they should make a scene and make every effort to get away by kicking, screaming and resisting.

Online

17. Continually dialogue with children about online safety.
18. Keep the computer in a high-traffic area of your home. Monitor and establish rules concerning your child's online activities and cellphone use.
19. Be aware of the type of access your child has to the Internet at school, libraries or friends' homes.
20. Surf the Internet with your children and let them show you what they like to do online.
21. Know who is connecting with your children online and set limits for online communications including social networking, instant messaging, emailing, online gaming and using webcams.
22. Use privacy settings on social networking sites to limit contact with unknown users, and make sure their screen names do not reveal too much information.
23. Caution children not to post revealing information or inappropriate photos of themselves or their friends online.
24. Encourage children to tell you if anything they encounter online makes them feel sad, scared or confused.
25. Learn about the Internet. Visit www.NetSmartz.org for more information about Internet safety.

Ordinary Time is Anything But

Many Catholics see Ordinary Time as being about green vestments, and filling up the time between Easter and Advent, and Christmas and Lent. However, Ordinary Time is so much more! It is a time of spiritual growth and contemplation of the miracles Christ performed during his public ministry. We hear the parables he used to teach his followers, and the miracle of the loaves and fish. We are told of Christ walking on water, and calling for Peter to come to him.

During this time, we may be tempted to wish for the excitement of Advent, or the anticipation of Lent, but this is a time to sit back and just be. Take time to enjoy the everyday normality of Christ's life. This second season of Ordinary Time is perfect for taking time to allow nature to enhance our daily prayers. Pray the Rosary during a walk, say your morning prayers while watching the sunrise, or talk about the creation with your children while catching lightning bugs. Enjoy the beauty of nature and take time to praise and thank God for it.

Do you know of anyone interested in becoming a Knight?

The Knights of Columbus are Catholic gentlemen committed to the exemplification of charity, unity, fraternity, patriotism and the defense of the priesthood. The Order is consecrated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is unequivocal in its loyalty to the Pope, the Vicar of Christ on earth. It is firmly committed to the protection of human life, from conception to natural death and to the preservation and defense of the family. It was on these bedrock principles that the Order was founded by Fr. Michael J. McGivney and remains true to them today. Call Paul McAnerney at 785-341-2735 or email at paul_mcanerney@yahoo.com with any questions you have about the Knights of Columbus or to recommend someone. Charity-Unity-Fraternity-Patriotism
