CATHOLIC CHARITIES UPDATES

A Big Thank You to everyone who contributed to the Catholic Charities Baby Bottle Campaign. If you forgot to return the bottle on Fathers' Day weekend, please continue filling the bottle with your loose change and return all bottles (filled or empty) next weekend or as soon as possible. Unfortunately, we lose many bottles even from past years so please check your house and cars and return all bottles. Catholic Charities provides assistance to mothers, babies and mothers-to-be through the Pregnancy Maintenance and Emergency Assistance programs from funds raised in this campaign. Thank you for supporting this important cause.

There is still time to make reservations for The Green Tie Celebration, Catholic Charities 19th annual fundraiser, Saturday, July 17. For the ninth consecutive year, anonymous donors will provide a dollar-for-dollar donation match up to $130,000! Funds raised are critical in supporting those in our communities facing emotional and financial turmoil. The Green Tie Celebration will be an exciting evening featuring music, dinner, cocktails, speakers, and a live auction at the Salina Country Club. Speakers will include clients who will share their stories of appreciation and how your donations changed their lives. See the diocesan website (salinadiocese.org) for more information and to purchase tickets.

For those wishing to provide food items to be used locally and for mobile outreach, boxes of saltines are needed. Please bring donations to the Catholic Charities office. We anticipate higher numbers of clients after June 30 when protections against housing evictions are lifted.

LAUDATO SI

Laudato Si, meaning "Praise be to You," is the title of Pope Francis's encyclical on the care of our common home. A common theme of the document is connection and relationship. Not only are we related to each other and the natural world through our dependencies, but also the problems of global scale environmental crises consist in relationships with future generations that are complex and interdependent.

He writes: "What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up? This question not only concerns the environment in isolation; the issue cannot be approached piecemeal." (LS, Paragraph 160)

The Knights of Columbus are Catholic gentlemen committed to the exemplification of charity, unity, fraternity, patriotism and the defense of the priesthood. The Order is consecrated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is unequivocal in its loyalty to the Pope, the Vicar of Christ on earth. It is firmly committed to the protection of human life, from conception to natural death and to the preservation and defense of the family. It was on these bedrock principles that the Order was founded by Fr. Michael J. McGivney and remains true to them today.
