Seeing Christ in All Things

It is almost time to head back to school. A chance to see old friends, make new friends, and for the chance to experience a new school, new teachers, and a new setting. During this time of newness, take a moment and try to see something good in everyone around you. Here are a few ways to show that you see Christ in everyone.

1. Take time to get to know the new kids at your school. Newness can be frightening, a friendly face helps.
2. Offer to sit with the quiet kid at lunch time, or talk with them during breaks.
3. Help other students with their lockers or class schedule. Even if this isn't a "new" year for them, they could still use help.

New for You!
