JULY 16, 2023 + FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A note from Fr. Ryan

Along the south bank of pews there have been numerous scratches showing up on the seats. At the moment, they are very visible, as the scratches have been treated with a type of marker to help protect the gouges. People keep asking what happened, and, well, I'm not entirely sure.

We have more people in our pews, and many new families. This is a wonderful gift. Children in the pews bring joy, hope, and play. Maybe it's a child with some toy? Sometimes people put their keys in their back pocket. Could this be the culprit? Or, maybe, someone with unsavory intentions has a message to send to us? It's so curious.

Certainly, we can speculate, surveille, or find some science to help us get to the bottom of it (pun intended), but, do we really need to know?

I'm currently working with some parishioners and the pew manufacturers on solutions to fix the scratches. In the meantime, you can keep an eye out, though the Church is open to all for prayer and reverence. God has graciously given us material gifts to share with everyone around us. These break and are subject to futility, even with the most judicious stewardship. Ultimately, this too is a moment to see Christ in the other. Pray that when we are in the presence of the Lord we will receive his love.

In Christ,
Fr. Ryan
