SEPTEMBER 17, 2023 + 24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Friends,

This past week we celebrated our parish feast day, Our Lady of Sorrows, on September 15th. These are days to mark changes but also connections. I hope many of you were able to join in the parish picnic and the Arts on the Green Festival. I would like to especially thank our festival organizers: Tamara Storms, Gloria Green, and Sharon Davis. They were helped by Brayson and Katy Benne and family, Joe Nilges, and Andy and Deb Price, Carrie Ellis, and Lucille Johnson. Please thank them when you see them.

This week, Jesus tells Peter to forgive seventy times seven times. This is forgiveness almost beyond imagination. Yet, thinking about a lifetime of marriage, married couples must forgive each other at least that many times. I don't think Jesus was exaggerating. How do we do this? Like most things, practice seems to help. A practice of examination at the end of each day can help us see where we need to ask for forgiveness and where we need to forgive. Even if it is just small things, the practice helps me get better at forgiveness. Through habits of small forgiveness, we learn to forgive the larger hurts and injuries within our life.

Be well and God bless,
Deacon Ed Souza
