OCTOBER 29, 2023 + 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Friends,

Last week, before Mass, a lector and I were discussing the readings. Our lectors have guidebooks to prepare them to proclaim the Scriptures. The guidebooks include pronunciation and background information on the readings. For example, last week in Isaiah, the Great King Cyrus featured prominently. Cyrus is important in both world history and Scripture. As we talked, the lector commented, "Wouldn't it be wonderful if everyone could see background information in our guidebooks." Indeed, our Catholic tradition and Biblical heritage is rich and, also, sometimes hard to follow.

Many of you have the weekly readings and reflections in seasonal missals. They are great resources. We also have online resources. The US Conference of Catholic Bishops have a great website (www.usccb.org). The USCCB site has the daily readings and an annotated Bible. For example, in our Gospel from Matthew this week (Matthew 22), the USCCB Bible annotations link to the Old Testament laws quoted by Jesus. The USCCB Bible footnotes are often used in my homilies. Perhaps you will find them useful for your own Bible study.

Be well and God bless,
Deacon Ed Souza
