NOVEMBER 19, 2023 + 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

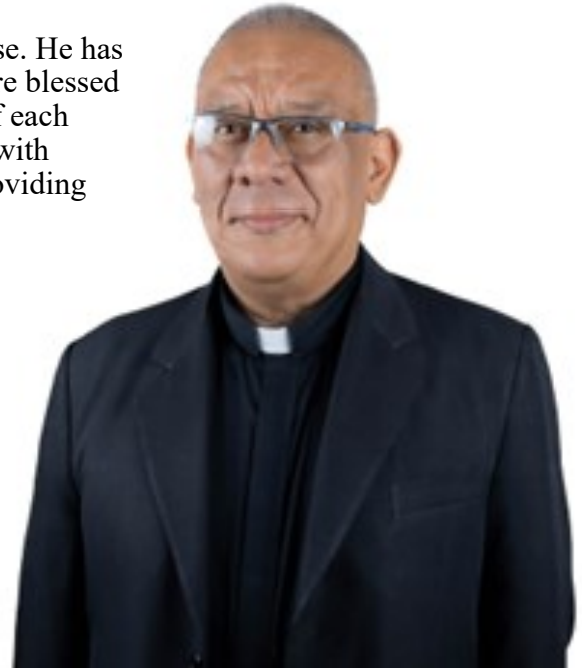

I would like to take this time to introduce Father Rafael Indave Campos. He arrived to the Salina Diocese on September 15th, 2023, and is the Parochial Vicar to the Sacred Heart Cathedral Parish in Salina, KS. He was Ordained a Priest on August 15th, 1992. He was born and raised in Carora City, in the state of Lara, Venezuela. This is his first visit to the United States.

He supports the hispanic communities throughout the diocese. He has traveled to Hays, Washington, Junction City, and Manhattan. We are blessed to have his presence here in Manhattan every 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month. He is looking forward to assisting our hispanic community with retreats, bible studies, weddings, and much more. His passion is providing pastoral assistance to marriage couples who are preparing for the sacrament of Matrimony.

We ask that you keep Father Rafael in your prayers that he may stay strong in his vocation, and that he may become an instrument of God's divine grace. Amen

Also, I want to thank Tony and Amy Parker, PTO members, and all of the other parents from MCS, for their time in organizing the Buttons -N-Bows fundraiser. It was a great success and it wouldn't have been a success if it weren't for parent volunteers like you!

Be well and God bless,
Deacon Ed Souza
