NOV 26, 2023 + OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Friends,

This Thanksgiving Weekend is a special time for reflection. In all the countries where I have travelled, Canada and the U.S. seem unique in making a national holiday for thankfulness. All great religions have habits of thankfulness. Modern spirituality guides tell us to make gratitude journals. These are good. They are useful in our daily habits of faith. And still, I come back to this time as unique in joining a nation in holy gratitude.

As Catholics, we understand these gifts have their origins with God our Creator. We also know they have come to us through sacrifices and work of very human people. Those people are virtuous and flawed. At times we are holy and at other times, we are not. Still, God works with us, with you and with me. For this we can be truly thankful: thankful for salvation in Christ, for each other, for those who have gone before, and for those who have yet to begin.

Be well and God bless,
Deacon Ed Souza
