DECEMBER 17, 2023 + 3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Friends,

J.S. Bach's sacred Cantata 82 "Ich Habe Genug" is music that helps me pray. "I have enough" or "It is sufficient" are translations from German of the opening phrase of the arias. The magnificent cantata was written by Bach for February's Feast of the Consecration of Mary, but it seems appropriate for Advent too, as we recall Mary's Immaculate Conception, her acceptance of God's offer to be the mother of our Savior, and her feast day this past week, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

'We have enough' and 'it is sufficient' may be among the most difficult words to say. To remember them, I need to listen to the words over and over in prayer. They are difficult, yet worthwhile lessons to practice and teach to our children. Two other phrases from the cantata are, "Rest my weary ones" and "My God! When will the lovely 'now!' come?" Rest in God's grace. It allows us to call on God, "Oh lovely Savior, come now." Hold onto the moments of Grace this Advent. They are enough. With Advent peace, we can love and care for others.

Thank you to all who have brought presents for our Advent Giving Tree. Your generosity will be shared with families in our community. We still have names on the tree. It would be wonderful to have all the names on the tree picked up this weekend. Please stop by the tree after Mass.

Be well and God bless,
Deacon Ed Souza
