JANUARY 14, 2024 + 2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Friends,

We begin our Ordinary Time of the Liturgical Season. The word “ordinary” refers to ‘ordinal’ or ‘counted’ time. The Sunday feast days are mile markers of our salvation journey. Ralph Martin in his magnificent book, Fulfillment of All Desire, described the holiness journey. “...we first are justified through faith and Baptism; then sanctified through the work of the Holy Spirit over a lifetime of growth; and finally glorified in the blessed vision of Heaven.”

St. Peter’s journey following Jesus had its ups and downs. He reminds me that I am not the only person that finds it hard to understand what the Holy Spirit expects. Still, it is a journey that is worth taking. Particularly because we are traveling together this happy road from justification, through sanctification, toward glorification.

Two quick items to note: This week, Thursday evening, we will continue our program on the National Eucharistic Revival. Please consider joining. Also, next weekend, Sunday afternoon, we have our Liturgical Renewal session. This is a time for all of our lay ministers (hospitality ministers/greeters, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, and lectors) to come together for prayer, training updates, and Q&A.

Be well and God Bless,
Deacon Ed Souza
