MARCH 3, 2024 + 3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Friends,

This week's Gospel of the cleansing of the Temple appears in all the Gospels. People often question me about the Gospels. Jesus driving out the moneychangers is probably the second most questioned Gospel verse (Matthew 20:1-16 is the most questioned, but a subject for another day). Why? The violence of his actions seems at odds with the Gospel of love and the Beatitudes proclaimed throughout his ministry.

Because the temple cleansing is so at odds with everything else in Jesus' ministry, it emphasizes how corrupt the temple had become. Jesus, though, is willing to offer himself in its place. He is willingly sacrificing himself so that a New Jerusalem can be born. All Gospel messages need to begin with our own evangelization. What sins and corrupt practices need to be driven from our hearts. Jesus has a zeal to purify us. May this be our Lenten prayer. Purify us that we might offer ourselves anew.

Pass the mike: The Church continues to encourage and empower the people of God. Over the years, I have found that one of the best ways to do that is simply pass the microphone to others. This weekend that is what is happening at the Synod listening sessions at St. Thomas More, Sunday at 2:00 pm. Come share your prayerful thoughts on the Church's Leadership and Organization. Also, I am passing the mike to Jenn Hinnen for a couple of weeks. She will write this bulletin letter while Mary and I are away on vacation. I trust you will profit as much from her wisdom as I have.

Be well and God Bless,
Dcn Ed Souza
