MARCH 17, 2024 + 5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

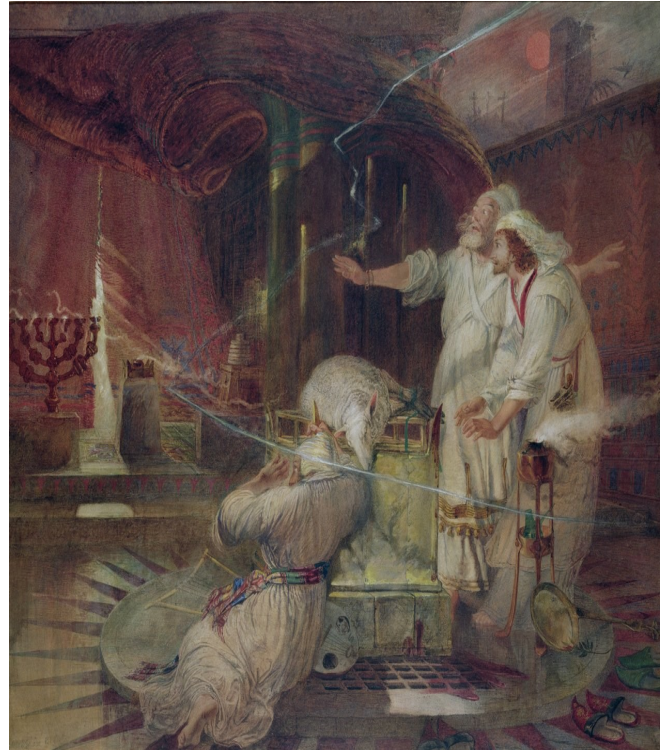

We hear in the first reading that the Lord will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and that it won't be like the old covenant. The Israelites broke the covenant with the Lord and that He had to show Himself their master. In the new covenant, the Lord places the law within us and writes it on our hearts. This is truly a great gift that God gives to us.

Then, we hear Jesus in the Gospel telling us that "unless a grain of wheat falls and dies, it'll remain as it is." That grain of wheat needs to die in order to produce fruit. We see this in the person of Jesus, He is the fulfillment of the old covenant, bringing about the new. His falling like a grain of wheat and dying for our sins opens up the new covenant to the whole world, Jews and Gentiles alike. Thus, making it possible to have His law within us and written on our hearts. How beautiful is this?

What areas in our hearts do we need to allow to die so that we may be more aware of His law, enabling us to more freely love and serve the Lord and those around us?

I encourage you, for the remainder of Lent and beyond, to ask the Lord to reveal to you the areas of sin and vice that need to die, so that you may be more attuned to His law and open to the new fruit He wants to bring about through you.

In Him,
Jenn Hinnen
