MARCH 24, 2024 + PALM SUNDAY

Friends,

Holy Week is different. To be 'holy' is to be set apart from the ordinary and made significant by God's extra-ordinary presence. We know that all of God is all present, at all times, and in all places. But we're human, we don't work that way. To see and experience the holiness of God, we need focus on holiness.

This week's liturgies are different. Some will finish without hymns to leave us hanging. Think. What is left to do in your Lenten faith journey?

In some liturgies we will be in the dark. Listen. Leave your phone off (no lights) and listen to Holy Scripture.

Sometimes we will have processions through church. Move. Salvation is a journey. Journey through all of Holy Week: Passion Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil, and Easter Sunday.

See you there,
Deacon Ed

Remarks from Ramona

Dear friends,

After serving nearly nine years as Director of Music, I am stepping down from this position. This decision will allow Vince and me the much-needed time to complete pending projects and to travel to destinations we have dreamed about. My resignation brings with it good news which is twofold: Alex Trout, Director of our Parish Choir, will take over as the Director of Music on April 1st, and I am staying on as Lead Accompanist.

I have been blessed to be given the opportunity to share this ministry with all of you during this time. You have inspired me so much by your participation in singing at Masses with such joyful voices. Leaving church and hearing many of you humming or whistling one of the hymns we just sang at Mass was always so uplifting. Your compliments on the music ministry, especially the song choices and the support and love that you have shared with me over these past years have been heartwarming.

I have served in the Manhattan Catholic Church's music ministry for over 32 years. During that time, I had the honor to work with all of the Manhattan area Priests, who nourished and guided me along this journey. Because of them, I was able to make this position a ministry and not a job.

A special thank you to all the former and current cantors, instrumentalists, choir members and past directors, for your love and support over these past 9 years and it is deeply appreciated. We truly worked together as a "team!"

I am not leaving you. I'm just stepping back. You will still hear me at the organ and piano and I will be around to help with music needed for any life-changing events that any of you may be faced with.

Peace and Love,
Ramona
