MARCH 31, 2024 + EASTER SUNDAY

Friends,

A happy and blessed Easter to you and your family. Easter joy is easy to enjoy. The beauty of the day fits well with the daffodils in yards and the yellow forsythia blooming around the town. Enjoy it, savor it, and remember it. Christ died that our sins might be forgiven. He rose that we might live in the triumph of a loving God.

Remember this feeling. This is the joy that God intends for us through His triumph. It is a foretaste of the Triumph of Days that God intends. We, as Christians, must never lose sight of Christ's triumph in the fullness of time. During the confusion of life's ups and downs, even the most tragic, if we have died in Christ, we have risen with him and will triumph in him. That enables us to face all things. The Easter joy is the joy of that love and promise.

Thanks to the staff and many liturgical ministers for a lovely Holy Week. The choirs, instrumentalists, and cantors were magnificent. Thank you also to the Art and Environment committee for the decorations throughout the week. And finally, a hearty welcome to our newest church members who came into the church on Easter vigil.

Be well and God Bless,
Dcn Ed Souza
