APRIL 7, 2024 + SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY

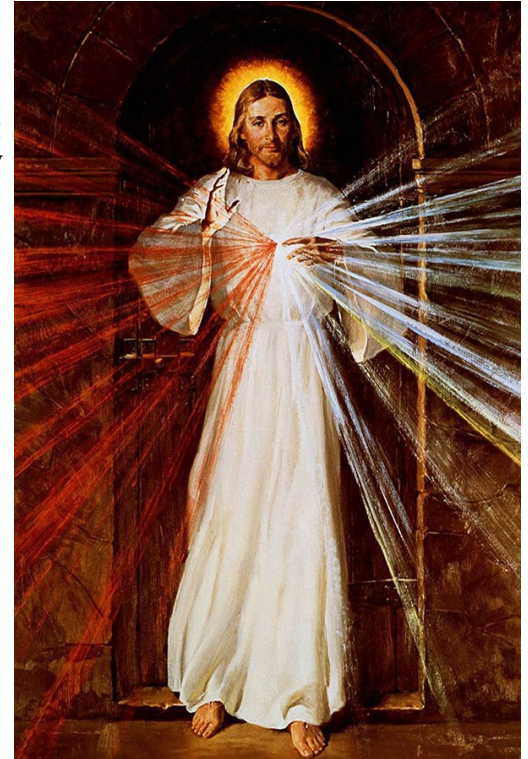

Friends,

Mercy is divine. We learn to be merciful by experiencing mercy. The Friday on which Jesus accepted death is a Good Friday. It is Good because it is the day that we learned that our Christ and Lord was willing to die for us while we were yet sinners. On Easter, we learned that mercy is never wasted in the eyes of God. Mercy is triumphant. This Sunday is the second Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday. Give thanks for God's mercy and experience that mercy. We will have a holy hour on Sunday to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will also be available. Come celebrate Mercy. Then go forth and be merciful.

THANK YOU: Thank you to the Parents and Teachers of our young people receiving First Communion this weekend. Your example of faith inspires us all to share our faith, that others might seek the Sacraments.

Transition: This weekend Ramona Kramer is starting her new role as Lead Accompanist for our parish. Thank you to Ramona for many years of dedicated work to bring forth magnificent liturgies. Alex Trout, who has previously been our choir director, is stepping into the role of Music Director. Please welcome him as he begins leading our liturgical music.

Be well and God Bless,
Dcn Ed Souza

SUNDAY of Divine Mercy

Join us today at 3pm in the Church for a Holy Hour with Reconciliation and the Divine Mercy Chaplet

Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in a vision, with his right hand raised in a blessing and his left touching his garment above his heart. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbolizing the blood and water that was poured out for our salvation and our sanctification. The Lord requested that "Jesus, I trust in You" be inscribed under his image. Jesus asked that his image be painted and venerated throughout the world.

On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday. (USCCB)

Over 50s

Over 50s group will meet Wed., April 10th at St. Isidores' for 12:10pm Mass, followed by a tour of the Church and a light lunch. Between 8:30am and 12:00pm, there will be Eucharistic Adoration in the Church. Questions? Contact Debbie Umscheid 785-565-8719
