APRIL 21, 2024 + FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Friends,

Throughout the Bible, the shepherd and flock are used as a metaphor for God and the People of God. Psalm 23, the Good Shepherd Psalm, is a particularly beloved example. From time-to-time Catholics tell me that they do not want to be led around or told what to do. Not everybody likes being called a sheep.

Over the years, I have traveled widely, studied other faith traditions, worked on projects that turned out well and worked on things that turned out badly. The Gospel story of the Shepherd leaving the 99 to seek the one lost sheep is dear to me (Lk 15:4). It has given me a sense of freedom to explore knowing that if I get lost God will come looking for me. John's Gospel today tells us what the Shepherd would do to find us, his lost sheep. The Shepherd would lay down his life to save us. This is helpful and makes sense to me. Perhaps it makes sense for you as well.

Be well and God Bless,
Dcn Ed Souza
