JUNE 16, 2024 + 11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Friends,

Happy Father's Day! It truly felt like summer this past week. The world is lush and green. The scripture readings this weekend paint visions of God bringing forth a beautiful people of faith that spread their branches across the world. It is a lovely image of our church, and most particularly of our parish. Throughout the year, we have visitors return because they had spent a formative part of their life in Seven Dolores. Often, they departed to new homes due to military service or simply that their time at university was complete.

Whatever the reason, it is lovely to have guests return and share stories of where faith has taken them. We clearly have a ministry as a place where faith can be formed. Let us continue to raise up people of faith.

Since it is summer, many of you will be traveling on vacation. Continue to stay connected with the church through attendance at Mass during your trip. Share your faith with those parishes. Remember to bring home a bit of the faith you find during your travels.

Concert Next Week – Matthew Morris, Music Director for Morris County Schools, Council Grove, will lead a choral masterworks concert at 7:00pm on Sunday the 23rd. This their fourth performance of the critically acclaimed, 'Holocaust Cantata' by David McCullough.

Be well and God Bless,

Deacon Ed Souza
