Fr. Leo's Mini Bio, pt. II, "My Family":

My parents, Frank (deceased) and Jeanette (Schafers) Blasi, is still living and currently resides in the thriving metropolis of Schulte, KS, where she attends St. Peter's Church. Dad is one of 17 children. He was born and raised in St. Leo, KS before the family moved to Wichita in the 1950s. Mom is one of 11 children, she was born in Stillwater, OK and lived there most of her childhood. They met while mom was attending Sacred Heart High School in Wichita. They got married a couple of years later.

As I stated last week, I am one of ten children, the fifth born, I have four older sisters. Dad was in the Army and moved quite a bit for work early in their marriage. I have a sister born in Hawaii, two born in Wichita, and one born in Del Norte, CO. By the time I came along, the family was in Garden City, KS, where I was born. Then, one of my younger sisters was born in Liberal, and the rest of my siblings were born in Wichita. We all attended St. Peter's School for part of our elementary education (most of us went all eight years there) and we all went to Goddard High School.

I met my wife, Elana "Lynn", in Tulsa, while I was attending Spartan School of Aviation in 1981. After a serious car accident, I returned to Wichita, and Lynn followed me there. Shortly thereafter, we were married at St. Peter's in December of 1982. Our first child died in the womb at about five months gestation in June of '83. It was while we were pregnant with our first son that we got custody of Lynn's little sister, Tracy, who was 12, going on 25. Leo Jr. was born later that year, Oct of '84. It was not long until we found we were pregnant again; Joshua was born in Dec of '85. I joined the Kansas Army National Guard the summer before he was born, a decision then made final because we did not have medical insurance at the time.

As busy as things were, they were about to get a lot busier, we found out that we were pregnant again about the same time I found out I was scheduled for Army flight school in Alabama. I left for school in February of '88. Lynn and the kids would follow me down after I had finished my initial phase of training. I was almost finished with that phase when I called home to find out that Lynn had just come from the Hospital. There, they told her that she had miscarried again. I was devastated. I was able to get home on emergency leave and made all the arrangements for the move to Alabama, we would be there for just under a year.

Shortly after arriving back in Kansas, we found out Lynn had breast cancer. She received treatment for it and was eventually pronounced cancer free. At about that same time, she found out we were pregnant again. Keith was born in May of '90. Soon following Kieth's birth, her doctors began advising her to have a hysterectomy to prevent the cancer from returning. This was a moment of great strife at home, mostly because I was suspicious of the doctor's motives. After a bit of soul searching, I told Lynn she could do what she thought was necessary. The hysterectomy was scheduled a month later.

Lynn reported to the hospital the first week of October in 1991 for the procedure. Upon arrival, blood work was taken, and she was assigned a room for the night. About an hour later, her doctor came to the room and informed us that they could not do the procedure as scheduled because Lynn was pregnant. As the pregnancy progressed, we would find out that Lynn was carrying twins and that they were girls. Lynn had always dreamt of having twin girls. Danielle and Desiree were born in June of 1992. Lynn's hysterectomy was completed two months later, a procedure that nearly killed her (that's another part of this story). That is how we came to have the privilege of raising six wonderful children.
