JULY 14, 2024 + 15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Fr. Leo's Mini Bio, pt.3, "Work"

It is fair to say that my work experiences are not that of your average newly-ordained priest. I have worked on a farm, worked in retail, in health assistance, in construction, in aviation, in the military, in education, as a chaplain/in homebound ministry, and now, the priesthood.

I grew up on what most people would call a hobby farm, West of Wichita but we were surrounded by large farms, and I had the opportunity to work with all kinds of animals. We had cattle, hogs, sheep, goats, even a couple of horses for a while. We also had chickens, ducks (occasionally), and rabbits (lots of rabbits). I got to work the ground. I drove lots of tractors, bailed lots of hay, and moved a lot of grain. I continued to help with much of that even after I entered the workforce away from the farm.

My first "real" job, meaning I got a regular paycheck, was a summer job assembling and installing sliding glass doors. When school started my junior year, I went to work at a lumberyard and a hardware store. A couple of nights per week I had a janitorial service gig too, but in the spring of that year, I left the janitorial job and started working for a man paralyzed by polio. I was his personal attendant, which I continued until just before I graduated.

After graduation, I worked construction to save money for school. I continued this for most of the time I was in school training to be an aircraft mechanic (two years). I eventually took a job refueling and cleaning airplanes to get my foot in the door to the aviation industry. I would work as a mechanic for Air Midwest, Cessna, Boeing (7 years), and Learjet (12 years). I also joined the military shortly after graduating tech school. With the understanding that I would go to flight school, I joined the National Guard as a mechanic. I served in the Kansas and Oklahoma Guard while working in civilian aviation. I did a number of active assignments for the military along the way. Eventually, I went to work full time in the civil service as a helicopter pilot.

I volunteered for more than 20 years as a religious education teacher, both with youth and with adults, and spent more than 10 years as a homebound minister and a hospital minister.

I have had jobs that I loved, and jobs I despised. I have been hired for jobs that I did not expect to get, I have been laid off several times (that is how aviation is) and I have been fired from jobs (three times in as many months; that was hard). Most of the jobs I did to make a living, but several were for the love of what I was doing.

I was blessed to find a career that interested me, and then another, and now a third. I do not know all that God has in store for me, but if it is half as interesting as what he has blessed me with up to this point, I am ready to go along on the ride. I am also happy to bring anyone along who wants to travel the journey with me, be it for the short term or for the long haul.

I have completed my first few years as a priest, and I could not be happier. My first assignment was at Immaculate Heart of Mary in Hays, but during that year I was also blessed with the opportunity to serve at St. Nicholas (Hays), St. Francis (Munjoy), the parishes affiliated with Oberlin, and the parishes affiliated with Atwood. I also celebrated Masses in Alaska, Oklahoma, and Washington D.C. My second assignment was with the parishes affiliated with Tipton in North Central KS beginning on June 26th, 2018. In 2019, I was assigned pastor of Sacred Heart, Plainville and St. Thomas, Stockton. My five years in these parishes has been a wonderful experience, and what I have learned will benefit me wherever I go. I am looking forward to the opportunity to serve the Parishes of Seven Dolors and St. Partick's for many years (God Willing).
